

HOME NEWS.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY. Republican Club Lincoln dinner, Belmont, evening. Lafayette Camp Sons of Veterans, Lincoln anniversary, evening. Lincoln Club of Brooklyn anniversary celebration, club-house, evening.

NEW-YORK CITY.

Edward Smith, a greaser at No. 506 West Twenty-ninth-st., was held in $500 bail yesterday in a police court on a charge of assaulting Police Officer Frederick Parker.

THEY STRUGGLED FOR THE PISTOL.

TESTIMONY AS TO THE SHOOTING OF CAMPBELL. BY MORRIS, THE POLICEMAN. The trial of Patrick T. Morris, who, while a policeman in uniform, shot and killed William F. Campbell, was continued yesterday before Judge Conroy.

MR. CAMPBELL OFFERS TO FORM A SYNDICATE.

At the meeting of the Atlantic Avenue Rapid Transit Commission yesterday afternoon Felix Campbell renewed an offer to build a proposed road for the railroad tracks in Atlantic avenue, and lease it to whoever might desire it and a source of profit to the promoters to put such a plant into effect.

A STATE SOCIETY FORMED.

THE NEW-YORK BRANCH OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION ORGANIZED. Representatives of the various state societies of the Sons of the Revolution met at the Lincoln Hotel, in this city, on April 25, 1895.

ONE LITTLE BOY SHOWS ANOTHER.

Nathaniel, seven and a half years old, was shot and almost instantly killed yesterday morning by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of George Coon, six years.

MR. LOOMIS WANTS AN INVESTIGATION.

Commissioner Loomis's request of Monday, sent to the Commissioners of Accounts, asking them to make an immediate examination of the street cleaning department, in view of the many rumors of dishonesty in the circulation, was answered by them yesterday.

TABLES TURNED ON THE COMPLAINTS.

There is a dispute between John F. Whalen and Thomas Broderick over the undertaking done at No. 22 Park-st. Whalen says that the place belongs to him, while Broderick alleges that he bought the business from John Whalen's wife.

DICTIONARIES OF MR. GERRIN'S SOCIETY MEET.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children was held yesterday afternoon. The reports showed that during the last month 417 complaints were received, of which 614 were investigated, 274 cases were prosecuted and conviction secured in all but ten cases. The number of children released and sent to homes was 275.

VIEW OF REAL ESTATE MEN ON TAXATION.

The Committee on Legislation of the Real Estate Exchange met yesterday. William C. Orr presided. The sub-committee on Taxation and Assessment reported against the proposed bills to tax mortgages in the place where the property is, and also against the proposals to tax personal property engaged in manufacturing and other mercantile interests.

THE SAN BERNARDINO OTRIS FAIR.

The old quarters of the 7th Regiment at Grand Central Park, which have been transformed into an orchard, are to be the exhibition of the products of San Bernardino County, California, which opens there this evening.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

The projectors of the new elevated railroad, from the Communipaw Ferry to Westside-ave., have given out the contracts for the construction of the road, and announce that cars will be running over it on the Fourth of July.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The Charity Hospital in Mt. Vernon was practically established on Monday night by the perfecting of its organization. Several attempts have been made to establish such a necessary adjunct to the town's interests, but a few weeks ago Joseph S. Wood, Charles H. Wilson, and several others of the public-spirited citizens, revived the project, and succeeded in securing a large amount of subscriptions.

NEWARK.

The trustees of the Free Public Library held a meeting last night and determined to take aggressive action toward compelling the Board of Finance to make the appropriation for a library required by law.

ELIZABETH.

The Board of Professors at the meeting on Monday night declared the lay Professors of the County Court to be a needless expense to the taxpayers and denounced the attempt to be made to have their salaries increased by the Legislature.

PASSAIC.

Excitement over a recent case of scarlet fever in Passaic, N. J., has been increased by a dangerous attack of scarlet fever, which has been traced to the daughter of the child who was first attacked.

PLAINFIELD.

Charles Burnett and Charles Leach, managers of the baseball interests of the Crescent League, have made known the names of the players named for the coming season.

PATERSON.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

The projectors of the new elevated railroad, from the Communipaw Ferry to Westside-ave., have given out the contracts for the construction of the road, and announce that cars will be running over it on the Fourth of July.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The Charity Hospital in Mt. Vernon was practically established on Monday night by the perfecting of its organization. Several attempts have been made to establish such a necessary adjunct to the town's interests, but a few weeks ago Joseph S. Wood, Charles H. Wilson, and several others of the public-spirited citizens, revived the project, and succeeded in securing a large amount of subscriptions.

NEWARK.

The trustees of the Free Public Library held a meeting last night and determined to take aggressive action toward compelling the Board of Finance to make the appropriation for a library required by law.

ELIZABETH.

The Board of Professors at the meeting on Monday night declared the lay Professors of the County Court to be a needless expense to the taxpayers and denounced the attempt to be made to have their salaries increased by the Legislature.

PASSAIC.

Excitement over a recent case of scarlet fever in Passaic, N. J., has been increased by a dangerous attack of scarlet fever, which has been traced to the daughter of the child who was first attacked.

PLAINFIELD.

Charles Burnett and Charles Leach, managers of the baseball interests of the Crescent League, have made known the names of the players named for the coming season.

PATERSON.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

The projectors of the new elevated railroad, from the Communipaw Ferry to Westside-ave., have given out the contracts for the construction of the road, and announce that cars will be running over it on the Fourth of July.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The Charity Hospital in Mt. Vernon was practically established on Monday night by the perfecting of its organization. Several attempts have been made to establish such a necessary adjunct to the town's interests, but a few weeks ago Joseph S. Wood, Charles H. Wilson, and several others of the public-spirited citizens, revived the project, and succeeded in securing a large amount of subscriptions.

NEWARK.

The trustees of the Free Public Library held a meeting last night and determined to take aggressive action toward compelling the Board of Finance to make the appropriation for a library required by law.

ELIZABETH.

The Board of Professors at the meeting on Monday night declared the lay Professors of the County Court to be a needless expense to the taxpayers and denounced the attempt to be made to have their salaries increased by the Legislature.

PASSAIC.

Excitement over a recent case of scarlet fever in Passaic, N. J., has been increased by a dangerous attack of scarlet fever, which has been traced to the daughter of the child who was first attacked.

PLAINFIELD.

Charles Burnett and Charles Leach, managers of the baseball interests of the Crescent League, have made known the names of the players named for the coming season.

PATERSON.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

The projectors of the new elevated railroad, from the Communipaw Ferry to Westside-ave., have given out the contracts for the construction of the road, and announce that cars will be running over it on the Fourth of July.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The Charity Hospital in Mt. Vernon was practically established on Monday night by the perfecting of its organization. Several attempts have been made to establish such a necessary adjunct to the town's interests, but a few weeks ago Joseph S. Wood, Charles H. Wilson, and several others of the public-spirited citizens, revived the project, and succeeded in securing a large amount of subscriptions.

NEWARK.

The trustees of the Free Public Library held a meeting last night and determined to take aggressive action toward compelling the Board of Finance to make the appropriation for a library required by law.

ELIZABETH.

The Board of Professors at the meeting on Monday night declared the lay Professors of the County Court to be a needless expense to the taxpayers and denounced the attempt to be made to have their salaries increased by the Legislature.

PASSAIC.

Excitement over a recent case of scarlet fever in Passaic, N. J., has been increased by a dangerous attack of scarlet fever, which has been traced to the daughter of the child who was first attacked.

PLAINFIELD.

Charles Burnett and Charles Leach, managers of the baseball interests of the Crescent League, have made known the names of the players named for the coming season.

PATERSON.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

The projectors of the new elevated railroad, from the Communipaw Ferry to Westside-ave., have given out the contracts for the construction of the road, and announce that cars will be running over it on the Fourth of July.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

The Charity Hospital in Mt. Vernon was practically established on Monday night by the perfecting of its organization. Several attempts have been made to establish such a necessary adjunct to the town's interests, but a few weeks ago Joseph S. Wood, Charles H. Wilson, and several others of the public-spirited citizens, revived the project, and succeeded in securing a large amount of subscriptions.

NEWARK.

The trustees of the Free Public Library held a meeting last night and determined to take aggressive action toward compelling the Board of Finance to make the appropriation for a library required by law.

ELIZABETH.

The Board of Professors at the meeting on Monday night declared the lay Professors of the County Court to be a needless expense to the taxpayers and denounced the attempt to be made to have their salaries increased by the Legislature.

PASSAIC.

Excitement over a recent case of scarlet fever in Passaic, N. J., has been increased by a dangerous attack of scarlet fever, which has been traced to the daughter of the child who was first attacked.

PLAINFIELD.

Charles Burnett and Charles Leach, managers of the baseball interests of the Crescent League, have made known the names of the players named for the coming season.

PATERSON.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

THE CLERGYMAN'S JURISDICTION DISSOLVED.

The West Mill Pond Water Storage Company, which is about building large reservoirs in the upper part of the county for Newark's future supply, has won a temporary victory over the Rev. George Woodford, of West Milford, in the legal dispute over the right to occupy property on the river of Newark's water.

Advertisement for 'CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR' featuring a large image of a barrel and text describing its quality and availability.

Advertisement for 'CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR' featuring a large image of a barrel and text describing its quality and availability.

Advertisement for 'CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR' featuring a large image of a barrel and text describing its quality and availability.

Advertisement for 'CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR' featuring a large image of a barrel and text describing its quality and availability.

Advertisement for 'CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR' featuring a large image of a barrel and text describing its quality and availability.

Advertisement for 'CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR' featuring a large image of a barrel and text describing its quality and availability.